Hi, Mike –

Sorry. We've been busy with a few dockets closing around the same time.

I think we still have one that needs processing. The rest has been posted.

One caveat though: it's always difficult to know when/if paper comments are going to show up at some point just because of the nature of that medium and how it travels.

Many thanks!

Assem

Subject: Cadmium Aquatic Life Water Quality Criteria

Hi Assem,

I wanted to follow on Docket EPA-HQ-OW-2015-0753 (Cadmium Aquatic Life Water Quality Criteria) to check what the expected timeframe is for the upload of the remaining comments for public access. It currently looks like one of the eleven comments have been posted, and I assume the others are still undergoing review. I know it takes several days and the reason I am asking is that I have received a couple of external inquiries and I just need to provide them with a timeframe.

Thanks Assem!

Mike

Hi, Mike —

Once you start loading your supporting documents, please make sure that their status is set to `metadata_ready` so our folks can work on them.

Many thanks!

Hi Assem,

I have attached the Docket Request Form for the Cadmium Aquatic Life Criteria. I also established an FDMS account. Please let me know if you need any additional information to establish the docket number and/or if you have any questions. Thanks again for your help on this process.
